

MIGHTY MACROS

Saturday August 6th at 10:30 am
Culver-Union Township Public Library
Ages 6 - 10

Macroinvertebrates can tell us a lot about pollutants in our water. The more macro diversity, the better the quality of water.

Join us for this hands-on presentation and learn which macros are in our streams and what they are telling us!

For more Information:
Imec@lakemax.org

